Dear Parents/Carers,

All students in year 10 will be taking both GCSE English Language and English Literature exams in year 11. For their literature exams they will need to study several texts in depth.

Therefore, it would be beneficial if every student could have their own copies of the texts.

Having their own copies, not only means that the students can make annotations in their texts but also ensures that the necessary revision for a 'closed book' examination can be undertaken. As from 2017, no texts have been allowed in any Literature examination and so students must memorize quotations that could be used to support points in their examination essays.

Your son/daughter will need copies of the following texts:

Title	Recommended ISBN
An Inspector Calls	978-1-4082-3689-5
A Christmas Carol	978-1840227567
Romeo & Juliet	978-0435232825

Your assistance in this matter is much appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs L Griss
Head of English
